

How decoupleR-ULM scores a TF: the regulon's pile-up

Each jittered point is one regulon member; $x = \text{its aligned signed contribution, } \text{sign}(\text{mor}) \times t_{\text{gene}}$. The diamond and dashed rule mark each regulon's weighted centre, which is that TF's ULM score.

